☞The Rev. E. M. Pinsoe, (Universalist,) of Cincinnati, will preach on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings next, at candle light, in the Old Court House.

Columbus, Dec 12, 1842.

$20 Reward.

THE house of the subscriber was entered this morning, at an early hour, and the following articles stolen Light silver tea spoons, six table spoons, one dessert ditto, variously marked G. L. G., A. G. & F. G. Gray, and S. M. Gray, also one pair of sugar tongs, marked G G. and A. G., also one silver bladed, ogate handle, butter knife, not marked.

The above reward will be paid for such information as shall lead to the detection and conviction of the thief. Jewelers in the neighborhood are requested to note the above marks

M. J. GILBERT.

Dec. 13, 1842 4tw3w.

P S. Since writing the above, I have missed a mahogany portable desk, containing several family papers, stamps, pens, and a small box filled with splendid quartz crystals

M. J. G.

Look out for Burglars!

THE citizens of the city are hereby cautioned to be on their guard against burglary, as during the two past nights two houses have been broken open, and attempts made to break others. Our citizens cannot, therefore, be too much on their guard, and I hope all well disposed persons will join in an effort to detect the scoundrels

A reward of a reasonable award for any information which will lead to the detection of any of the burglars. G. H. HAWKEY,

City Marshal.

Columbus, Dec. 13, 1842

INAUGRATION BALL TICKETS

Can be had at the

AMERICAN HOTEL,

Columbus, December 7, 1842.

CLEMENT L. VALLANDIGHAM,

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

NEW LISBON, OHIO.

Dec. 6, 1842—8&wlf.

OYSTERS! OYSTERS!! OYSTERS!!!

THE Proprietors of the Young Coffee House, in the Basement of the Neil House, are receiving daily from Baltimore, Oysters of a superior quality, and flatter themselves that they can be served up in suit the taste of all who may favor them with a call..

YOUNG & SHIELDS.

N B. Oysters by the can at all times. Orders from a distance promptly attended to Y. & S.

Columbus, Dec 9, 1842—4tn.

BOARDING.

C. W. KENT respectfully solicits his acquaintances to notice this call. He has taken the handsome Cottage house formerly occupied by E N. Gregory, on High street, and is now prepared to accommodate persons wishing boarding Two gentlemen and their wives can be accommodated with suitable rooms. Table accommodation suitable.

Nov. 29, 1842—1md

MUSIC—A CARD.

BARON DE FLEUR, would respectfully give notice to the citizens of Columbus that, having determined to make that city his residence, he has consented to teach a class of pupils in the pleasing and attractive science of Music, on the Piano Forte, Harp and Guitar. He can at all times be found at the American Hotel, or at Mr. Reed's Music Store, corner of Broadway and Long