A. & M. Baldwin (securities)

Jane Bates

To the honorable court of Lord of ^{the m. Bawdwin} ~~Baldwin~~ ^{his successors} Orators ~~J. Baldwin~~ that on the of a certain ^{in the year} ~~year~~ ^{the year} support of a ^{two sides one for the} ~~credit~~ he had by her for the year ^{& the other for} the same object in succeeding year; each note was for the sum of ten by five doll. The one he has paid & the other he is not bound to pay because before it fell due & before the commencement of the year for the support of the credit during which he gave this note the credit departed this life so that the said Jane incurred no trouble or expense to entitle her to one cent of said last mentioned note. Your Orators shew farther that the said Jane had assigned said note to a certain said Thomas whom together with said Jane they pray to have made defendants to this their bill with apt words to charge them but that before said assignment was made by said Jane your Orators learned of him of his equity of redemtion. Yet so it is said said Jane before said has sued your Orators obtain to judgment & issued execution under which your Orators have been obliged to give a forthcoming bond all which actions & damages are contrary to equity & good conscience & tend to the manifest wrong & injury of your Orators in tender consideration whereof In that your Oration ~~is~~ ^{is} ~~in~~ ⁱⁿ ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~present~~ ^{present} ~~case~~ ^{case} ~~of~~ ^{of} ~~this~~ ^{this} sort are properly cognizable may it please your wisdoms to grant to your Orators your most gracious writ of subpoena & injunctive commanding the said Jacob & all others not to proceed with said suit & forthcoming hind until the matter can be heard in equity: your Oration.
