

Conway Munro (1908-1995)

The St. Louis Post-Dispatch – Saturday, March 4, 1995

Munro, Conway, Fri., March 3, 1995, Beloved husband of the late Roberta R. Munro (Robbins), dear father of Joan R. Martin, Philip C. and Carolyn and John A. Munro, dear grandfather of Chip, Rob, Vickie [sic], Melissa and Steve, Mark, Eric, Stephanie, Amy, Matthew and Donna, Karen and Dave, great-grandfather of Abigail, Rio and Matthew Jr., dear brother of Margaret Stratton McClennan and the late Genevieve Peck.

Memorial services will be held Sat., March 4, 11 a.m. at First Presbyterian Church of Ferguson, 401 Darst St. Mr. Munro was an alumni, Colgate Unvi. And a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity. In lieu of flowers, donations to Talking Tapes for the Blind, 3015 S. Brentwood Blvd, St. Louis, 63144 or charity of your choice. Arrangements by WHITE-MULLEN Mortuary.

Position: Section B, Page 4, Column 6
Location: St. Louis, Missouri
Source: www.newspapers.com/image/142383551
Copyright: 2016, Newspapers.com
Transcriber: John P. Munro

The Syracuse Herald-Journal – Tuesday, April 4, 1995

Conway Munro, 86, of Ferguson, Mo. died March 3 in Ferguson after a short illness. Mr. Munro was born in Camillus and lived in Syracuse several years before moving to Ferguson in 1950. He was a graduate of the former Cook Academy, Montrose Falls, and a 1932 graduate of Colgate University. He was a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity. Mr. Munro was a former executive in the Syracuse office and later St. Louis office of Continental Can Co. He was a member of Camillus Baptist Church and Ferguson Presbyterian Church. His wife, the former Roberta Robbins, died in 1978.

Surviving are two sons, Philip C. of Youngstown, Ohio, and John A. of Ferguson; a daughter, Joan R. Martin of Cool Valley, Mo.; a sister, Margaret Stratton McLennan of De Witt; 13 grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren. Graveside services will be in Maplewood Cemetery, Camillus, at a time to be announced. There are no calling hours. Contributions may be made to Talking Tapes for the Blind, 3015 S. Brentwood Blvd., St. Louis, Mo. 63144 or a favorite charity. Arrangements are by B.L. Bush & Sons Funeral Home, 10 Genesee St., Camillus.

Position: Section B, Page 4, Column 2
Location: Syracuse, New York
Source: Newspaper Archive — www.newspaperarchive.com
Copyright: 1995, The Herald Company
Transcriber: John P. Munro

The Eagle-Bulletin – Wednesday, April 12, 1995

Conway Munro, 86, of Ferguson Mo., died March 3 in Ferguson after a short illness. Munro was born in Camillus and lived in Syracuse before moving to Ferguson in 1950. He was a 1932 graduate of Colgate University. Munro was a former executive in the Syracuse office and later St. Louis office of Continental Can Co. He was a member of Camillus Baptist Church and Ferguson Presbyterian Church. His wife, the former Roberta Robbins, died in 1978.

Surviving are two sons, Philip C. of Youngstown, and John A. Of Ferguson; a daughter, Joan R. Martin of Cool Valley, Mo.; a sister, Margaret Stratton McLennan of Dewitt; 13 grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren. Graveside services were in Maplewood Cemetery, Camillus. Contributions may be made to Talking Tapes for the Blind, 3015 S. Brentwood Blvd., St. Louis, Mo. 63144 or a favorite charity. B.L. Bush & Sons Funeral Home, 10 Genesee St., Camillus had charge of arrangements.

Position: Unknown
Location: Syracuse, New York
Source: Copy held by Mark C. Munro
Copyright: Unknown
Transcriber: John P. Munro

The Syracuse Herald-Journal – Wednesday, June 7, 1995

Services for Conway Munro, 86, of Ferguson, Mo. Who died March 3 in Ferguson after a short illness, are 10:45 a.m. Saturday at Maplewood Cemetery, Camillus. There are no calling hours.

Mr. Munro was born in Camillus and lived in Syracuse for several years before moving to Ferguson in 1950. He was a graduate of the former Cook Academy and a 1932 graduate of Colgate University, where he was a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity. Mr. Munro was a former executive with Continental Can Co. In Syracuse and later in St. Louis. He was a member of Camillus Baptist Church and Ferguson Presbyterian Church. His wife, the former Roberta Robbins, died in 1978.

Surviving are two sons, Philip C. of Youngstown, Ohio, and John A. Of Ferguson; a daughter, Joan R. Martin of Cool Valley, Mo.; 13 grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren. B.L. Bush and Sons Funeral Home, Camillus, has arrangements.

Position: Section B, Page 4
Location: Syracuse, New York
Source: Genealogy Bank — genealogybank.com
Copyright: 1995, The Herald Company
Transcriber: John P. Munro