

transmitting such of our manufactures as the wisdom of the committee appointed to dispose of the vast sums contributed, shall deem most useful, we shall abundantly satisfy our humane intentions, and substantially serve this kingdom.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant has been pleased to appoint Sir James Laurence Cotter of Rockforest, bart. to be High Sheriff of the county of Cork; and Daniel Bagot of Kilcoursey, Esq; to be High Sheriff of the King's co.

Mr Longithe Doyle, organist of Christ church, was on Saturday elected organist of the College, in the room of Dr. Murphy, deceased.

Saturday his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, accompanied by many of the nobility and gentry, were elegantly entertained at dinner by the right hon. John Berresford, at Feltrim.

Same day, the Inchiquin and Aurora tenders, with a great number of able seamen, sailed for Plymouth.

Sunday, Mess Boyd, Digby, and Harrison, arrived in the Clermont packet, Taylor, from Holyhead.

Tuesday last — Murren, one of the villains concerned in the robbery of the Rev. Messrs. O'Shaughnesey and M Daniel, at New Bridge, co. Kildare, (as mentioned in our last) was apprehended by a party of the Kilcullen Rangers, as he was crossing the bog near that place, with a feather bed, part of the plunder, in his possession; they conducted him to Naas jail. — The miscreants who committed these robberies, particularly merit the