

Monday a M.

Dear Alex Jessie and family. I have been so very busy since I came back from Dayton. I promise myself each morning, I'll write today, but I just don't seem to be able to do the things I want to. I hope by now you are all a little more consoled to your tragic loss. I think I understand better than any one, what you are going through. We thought of you so often yesterday, as our Bobbie had gone fourteen years yesterday, but I would not want him back for the world, and as time goes on you will feel the same way about Buddy. sure, we do get lonely but some day we'll all meet again, if we are worthy of such a great joy. I was so impressed when the 23rd Psalm was sung, as Bobby said it when he came out of a Coma, and it has meant a great deal to me since. Frank felt badly he was unable to attend, but he feels very deeply for all of you. I was so pleased, to learn you are all so faithful in the Baptist Church, I was very much impressed by it all and we do have a peace and a consolation at a time like you have just experienced, that God is good and he gives us strength to carry on and we all come out finer and more appreciative Christians after our Bethelmania, and we have His blessed promise that the crowning day is coming, bye and bye, so material wealth don't count, by your works are you known, and it well be well that we store treasures in Heaven as we are here but a little while. I am sending a little cutting out of a Baptist Church Bulletin, that was given to me about six months after Bobby died. I do want it back, so please be sure and send it back. I have loaned it to missions and evangelists and it has been very helpful in leading young people to accept Christ as their Saviors. maybe Irene or Jean can type a couple of copies I understand Irene is active in young people work it might be helpful to her in her groups so I would appreciate an extra copy but do send back my original one. I have kept it all these years

I sent Tommy's suits to your home, as I feel Jack may be able to wear them. I have spoken to Jack about it. the new suit was an expensive one Tom never wore it but twice. I felt it worth $10. - he can have the other we tried hard to sell it here for Tom, but they don't seem to be any one that small. I hope I don't put you to too much trouble, but I don't want to drag them down to Florida. if Jack can't wear them maybe Sonny or Alex might know of a small person. you know it is impossible to get two pant suits now

Well Jessie I do sincerely hope by now your shoulder is well on the mend and is not causing you too much trouble. I hope every one is as well as can be expected under the circumstances. write som, but love to all Eva Frank
