J. A. Bentley Commissioner Pensions In reply to yours enclosed we beg your pardon for our lengthy letter.
We wish to state some facts not before mentioned. Barney Freeman was a commissioned officer in Capt Bess's Company and Col Wm Austin's Regiment Barney L. Freeman was sworn into service on the 10th of July 1812 and was not called into actual service until the last of January 1815. As his commission bore the rank of "Ensign" (now known as second Lieutenant) and can be found in the office of the Commissioner of Land Warrants where it was sent some twenty years ago if you will have the office examined I think it will be found. If you could furnish us with the name of any person who is drawing a pension that was a member of Capt Bess' Com. we could give point evidence of the following facts. After leaving the rendezvous en route for Sister's Ferry on the Savannah Ensign Freeman was thrown from the Col's horse and so badly hurt as to prevent his going on with the company - he gave his sword to Orderly Sergt Thos Hunt who was to act in his place till his return to duty.
Ensign Freeman while on his return to duty heard that peace was made and company disbanded.

Sir In reply to yours of the 14th inst I will give you my name in full: my name is Barney Lewis Freeman I served under Capt. Benjamin Goss Maj. McLane's Regiment I served in a drafted company though not drafted myself I was a commissioned Officer under our discipline in 1815 I was Ensign or second Lieut my wages were 18 per month. We was organized at Warrenton A. C. in Jan 1812. To the best of my recollection I served under the same organization that I served under two years previous to the time above mentioned. I cannot account for my name not being found on the muster rolls unless it was caused by my absence when the Company was discharged. On my way to Cister ferry I received an injury by being thrown from Maj. McLane's horse which disabled me for duty. I was confined several weeks to my bed before I recovered peace was made. Thomas Hunt the Orderly Sergeant took my sword and acted in my place during my absence
