

Dec. 1-43.

Dear Aunt Jessie
& all.

Received your card & was glad to hear from you. I was only to glad to do anything that I could & only wished I could have done more. Ruth & I was sorry that we didn't stay until Sunday, but will try to come down before long. Everyone here is just fine & I am back to work again. We are having nice weather here. We got to see Uncle Joe & he said he was sorry that he couldn't come down. He looks fine & is working nights in a defense shop.

Didn't get to see much of Jean or Jim. I bet they were good & tired when they got back home.

Well, how is your arm & did you go to another doctor. I sure hope <sup>that</sup> it is feeling better by now.

Well, I guess there isn't much more to say.

I am enclosing $1<sup>00</sup> for the telephone call, which I made. I forgot to leave it through the hustle bustle to get to the train. I guess if we were around Aunt Annie very long we wouldn't remember much. The call came to $1.02 but will give you the two cents when I see you.

Well so long for now & write soon & let me know how everyone is.

Love
Mable.
