

MARRIED.] A few days ago, Mr. Mc. Donagh, of Palmerstown, Linen-draper, to Miss Charlotte Harding, at the Basin.—Mr. Edward Fitzsimons, to Miss Catharine Smith, both of Clogheran, near Dundrum.—At Corke, Mr. Boyle Iago, Butter-Merchant, to Miss Grace Hill; and George Sackville Cotter, Esq; to Miss Rogers, daughter of Bayly Rogers, Esq; M. D.

DIED.] A few days ago, in Athy, Mr. Richard Jessop, one of the people called Quakers.—At Waterford, the son and heir of Adam Rogers, the younger, Esq.—In Lurgan-street, Mr. William Paget, Ship-broker.—Wednesday last at Carlow, the Rev. Dr. Stor Crump, most sincerely and deservedly lamented.