

Myron A. Pfeiffer

Services for Myron A. Pfeiffer, a sergeant in the protective division of the Cleveland Federal Reserve Bank, will be at 2 p.m. tomorrow at the Charles A. Melbourne & Sons funeral home, 12737 Euclid Avenue, East Cleveland.

Mr. Pfeiffer, 62, died Friday in Huron Road Hospital. Born in Cleveland, he moved to Willowick in 1921. For the past 36 years he had lived at 39120 Vine Street.

He was a member of Windermere Masonic Lodge and served overseas with the Army in World War I. He had been an employe of the Federal Reserve System for the past 25 years.

Mr. Pfeiffer is survived by his wife, Mable L.; a son, Myron J., of Mission, Kan.; a daughter, Mrs. Ileen Tessmer of Mentor; two brothers, and three grandchildren:

Masonic services will be at 8 tonight in the funeral home. Burial will be in Mentor Cemetery.